

General Electric is one of the world's leading suppliers of power generation and energy delivery technologies, providing a broad array of solutions for traditionally fueled plants as well as those driven by renewable resources such as wind, solar and biogas. As a part of GE Infrastructure, we have the worldwide resources and experience to help customers meet their needs for cleaner, more reliable and efficient energy.

OMLP Program Associate

Tasks:

- Intensive two-year entry-level program with four rotational assignments
- Possible assignments include: manufacturing operations, Lean, process engineering, six sigma quality, materials management, supply chain management, environmental health and safety
- Mentoring/networks, teamwork, ongoing reviews, and defined deliverables
- Technical classroom training in manufacturing, global supply chain management, Lean Six Sigma, and sourcing
- Business training and challenging experience in: project management, team leading, negotiation, business acumen

Expectations:

- B.S./M.S. degree in engineering (mechanical, industrial, electrical, transportation engineer or engineering manager are preferred)
- Commitment to a career in supply chain/services management
- Analytical approach to problem solving
- Strong interpersonal and communications skills
- Rotation locations vary, thus candidate must be geographically mobile
- Fluent English (written and oral) and Hungarian

If you are interested, please visit <https://www.ge.com/careers> and find the job under job number 1894362.

GE imagination at work

